COUNTY OPERATION OF FAIR PARK CONSIDERATIONS	ations of the Administrative Coordinator Doug Johnson presented information on the considerated County directly operating Washington County Fair Park. The three main issues to staffing costs, building ownership, and organizational features. Staffing costs we similar positions to the current AIS operations. For the same core staffing plan, c would require approximately $89,000 more annually. For building ownership, th	• • owns only the Pavilion building with AIS owning the Ziegler Center, storage buil	ding, restroom building, stage and donated structures. Government and private non-profit organi provide differences in organizational features, which would impact the operations Specific issues considered were accountability structures, pay plans, fee setting, p administration. The committee members were asked to consider which organizat suited for operating a fairground, for building ownership and care, and whether the direct county operation would provide enough value to justify the change.	ie added cost of 35 affect county operation would provide chough value to justify the change.
FINANCIAL REVIEW OF 2006-2009 AND MONTHLY PATTERNS
Finance Director Sue Haag reviewed information provided on the Fair Park 2006	-2009 Income and Expenses, Monthly Revenues and Expenses by event type for 2008, and the 2008	Washington County Fair Income Statement by Day.
