

MINUTES – MEETING 124
WASHINGTON COUNTY LANDMARKS COMMISSION
May 7, 2007
WASHINGTON COUNTY COURTHOUSE

PRESENT: Chairperson Robert Meyer, Eileen Densow, Marilyn Merten, Beverly Schroeder, Barbara Wenzlaff. Excused absence: Norbert Dettmann, Irene Blau. Also present: Washington County Clerk Brenda Jaszewski.

The meeting was called to order by Chairperson Robert Meyer at 2:10m. The meeting was properly noticed and posted. There was a moment of silence for Landmarks Commission members Paul Quick, City of Hartford, who passed away on April 22, 2007.

MINUTES

Minutes of April 2, 2007, were approved by a motion of Ms. Merten, second by Ms. Schroeder. Motion carried.

LANDMARK APPLICATIONS:

LOHR PUROIL SERVICE STATION – The landmarks plaque narrative was approved by Mr. and Mrs. Schlieve. It was moved by Ms. Merten, second by Ms. Schroeder that final authorization for the Lohr Gas Station be given and that County Clerk Brenda Jaszewski place the order for the plaque. Motion carried.

THE BROWN DOG – Owner Aaron Fuhreck presented a draft of the landmark plaque, titled “James Kneeland House.” Commission members revised the narrative and requested that Mr. Fuhreck research the timeline verifying dates the building was used as an Inn, residences, Abstract and Title business, and various restaurant establishments. It was moved by Ms. Densow, second by Ms. Schroeder that the Brown Dog application submitted by owner Mr. Aaron Fuhreck is complete and shall be approved as a Washington County Landmark. Motion carried.

APPOINTMENT TWO COMMISSION MEMBERS TO FILL VACANCIES

Commission members reported that the names of two candidates will be presented to the Washington County Board Chairperson to fill two vacancies.

LANDMARKS DRIVING TOUR MAPS

Commission members are reviewing each municipality driving tour map to make additions and corrections for reprint. Properties and sites with landmark status will be listed with the revisions.

OTHER BUSINESS

SMART GROWTH – no further information.

NEXT MEETING: June 4, 2007, 2:00 P.M.

It was moved by Ms. Merten, second by Ms. Densow to adjourn the meeting at 3:50 p.m. Motion carried.

Barbara L. Wenzlaff, Secretary-Treasurer
Washington County Landmarks Commission